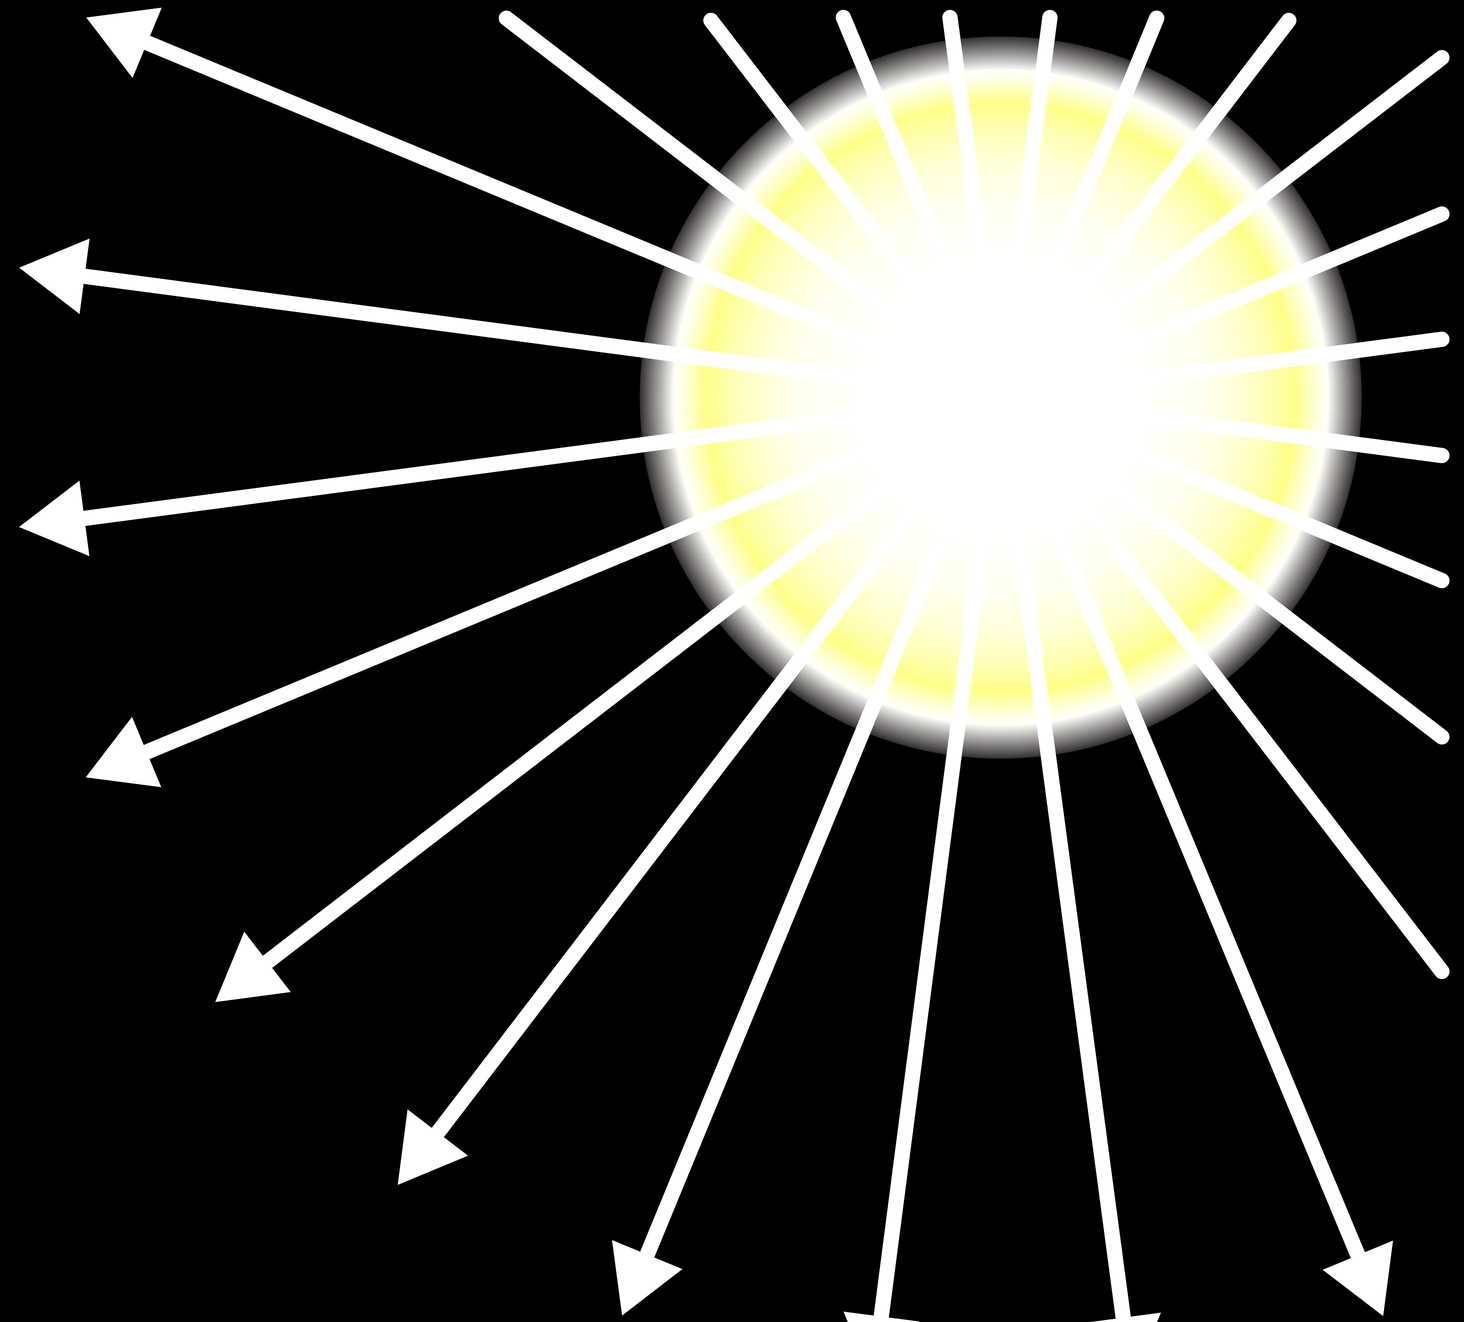
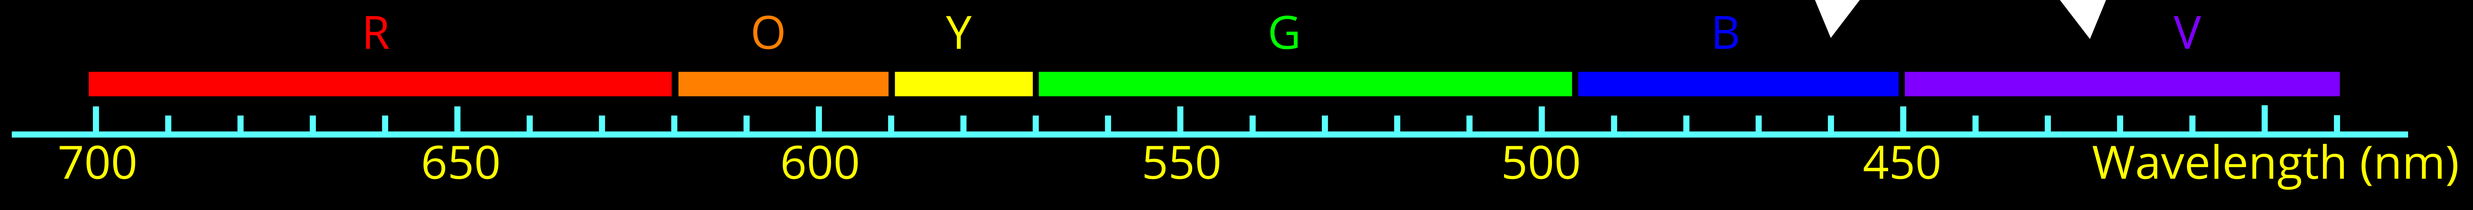
FACTS ABOUT SUNLIGHT

a. Sunlight is the form of electromagnetic radiation that our eyes are sensitive to.

b. Sunlight is also called daylight, visible light or just light.

c. Other kinds of radiation we are sensitive to but cannot see are infrared that we feel as heat and ultraviolet that causes sunburn.

d. Sunlight can be described in terms of waves or particles called photons.




e. All forms of electromagnetic radiation travel at approx. 300,000 kilometres per second in a vacuum.