RYB SUBTRACTIVE COLOUR

RYB colour is a subtractive colour model in which red, yellow and blue paints are combined in various proportions to produce a wide range of other colours. R, Y and B are the primary colours. Together they produce a dark brown.